JOHN WATSON, ALDERMAN. Successor to Late S. P. Ash Chosen

By City Council. John Watson was last night elected a member of the city council of Ogden to succeed the late S. P. Ash. The final vote was unanimous for Mr. Watson, although in executive season there was quite a lively contest, eight hallots being taken and six candidates being voted for, namely, John Watson, Albern Allen, John Tyler, James Bailard, Willard Snow and George E. Browning, Browning and Ballard were each quite near elected at one time.

The street sprinkling question was taken up and it was agreed to report it favor of keeping the old district and having the recorder advertise for bids. The report was later laid over in open sension, so that for the present sprinkling will be done as usual.

The water committee was instructed to self the old surinklers and a street sweeper, was ordered purchased from the Studebaker company for $275.

The fire men asked for a raise in salance to conform with the schedule in force prior to Jan. 1, 1898. Reforest. John Watson was last night elected
